TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

August 28, 2011

by the renewal of your mind,
that you may discern
what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.*

Anxious Parents, Excited Children

Excitement fills the air as the new school year began On Monday, August 22, at Saint Felicitas school. Once again the place is buzzing with noise and activity – children running and screaming, excitement of the games, teachers scrambling to catch up, the energy in the air... Well, we sort of miss it all during the long summer vacation. Welcome back! Enjoy the fun, learning and prayer. As the kinder parents took leave of their children there was a sense of worry written large across their faces... away from home, away from mom. Well, it is a new step your children take in their journey of life. It is a process of 'let go, let God.'

Catholic school is a faith-filled community where the young nourish their mind, soul and body. While they learn their traditional 3Rs, they also learn the rudiments of faith, good behavior and social skills. There is also lots of technology that goes with learning today. Our school is quite abreast with technological advances that prepare our children to meet with the challenges of tomorrow. We wish our children, parents and teachers a wonderful year of learning. Make learning fun as the following poem says.

Play Today

by Leila P. Fagg

You say you love your children and are concerned they learn today?
So am I -- that's why I'm providing a variety of kinds of play.
You're asking me the value of blocks and other such play?
Your children are solving problems;
they will use that skill every day.
You're asking what's the value of having your children play?
Your daughter's creating a tower;
she may be a builder someday.
You're saying you don't want your son to play in that sissy way?
He's learning to cuddle a doll.
He may be a father some day.
You're questioning the interest centers; they look like just listless play?
Your children are making choices;
they'll be on their own some day.
You're worried your children aren't learning and later they'll have to pay?
They're learning a pattern for learning;
for they'll be learners always.

R. C. I. A.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the process of becoming fully initiated into the Catholic Church. It is often described as a journey of Faith and is the preparation for receiving the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist) at the Easter Vigil.

Perhaps you can think of someone who longs to have a closer relationship with Heavenly Father and is looking for a place to fulfill that desire. Do you know of someone whose search has raised an interest in the Catholic Church and wishes to know more about church beliefs and practices? We invite those who have questions about Catholicism to participate in group sessions that involve sharing, prayer, reflection, questions, discussion.

Our first session begins on Wednesday, August 31st., at 6:30 p.m. in St. Mary's Center. You are welcome to join us.

ST. FELICITAS SCHOOL

We are off to a great start for our 2011 – 2012 school year. The students came on Monday with a great energy and enthusiasm. After our first bell, students lined up and Fr. Augustine was able to join us for our first morning prayer. We had pledge and announcements that followed. It went off without a hitch and the students proceeded to their classrooms to learn all about what awaits them in this new year.

After much discussion on rules and procedures in their classrooms, we came back together as a community. We ended our first day offering praise and thanks to God and looking to the Gospel message of Jesus for wisdom. The students heard about Jesus' first day on the job at the Wedding in Cana where He did His first miracle. This related to their first day of school. Jesus was hesitant but said yes to God, thus beginning His calling that ended up changing the world and continues to change the world today.

“PATRIOT DAY”

St. Felicitas Catholic School would like to invite our church community to join us as we celebrate “Patriot Day” on Sunday, September 11th, 2012 during the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

All are invited to join us as we honor those who were injured or died during the September 11th terrorist attacks 10 years ago.

At the end of the mass, there will be a special blessing for the brave men and women who continue to serve to our country. We invite any member of the St. Felicitas Church community, retired or those who currently serve as a police officer, fire fighter, emergency first responder or military personnel to come receive a blessing.

The school has invited the San Leandro and Oakland Police departments and our local fire fighters to come and join us as well.

*****

The prayers and intentions of “Patriot Day” will continue on the next day, Monday, Sept. 12, in our special Mass to conclude the “Prayer for Peace” services which have been held every first Monday of the month since the terrorist attacks 10 years ago.

We will honor all those who lost their lives in the attack as well as all our servicemen still serving today . If you have a family member who is unable to be here in person, you are welcome to bring a photograph of that person so that they can be honored and blessed in their absence.

The Mass will be at 7:00 p.m. in Church.

Although we are concluding the devotional practice, prayer for peace is still necessary and urgent. We invite all to pray for peace every day!

LA CRUZ DE JESÚS

La percepción de una cruz cambió dramáticamente después de la crucifixión de Jesús. Antes de ese suceso, la muerte en una cruz no era tan solo horrible, sino que era degradante. Era un castigo reservado únicamente para los más horrendos criminales. La palabra "gloria" no habría hallado su lugar en una oración que contuviera la palabra "cruz". Mas todo esto cambió con Jesús. Con el pasar del tiempo, los creyentes comenzaron a venerar y a honrar la Cruz.

La pintaron, esculpieron, y tallaron imágenes de la misma. Muchos perdieron su vida por asociarse con ella.

Hoy nuestra reverencia y relación con la cruz poco recuerda el desprecio al que originalmente estuvo asociada. Con el curso de los años, es nuestra percepción de la Cruz la que determina cómo seguimos a Jesús. (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

El Amén y la Doxología

La Plegaria Eucarística concluye con una doxología o palabra de Gloria para Dios y es la forma tradicional en la que se concluye un himno litúrgico. En la celebración eucarística esta es la doxología principal mediante la cual, quien preside la liturgia, expresa la glorificación de Dios. El pueblo ha de responder con un rotundo amén que haga honor no sólo a la doxología misma, sino también, a lo que significa Amén. La palabra Amén es una expresión de firmeza, de total convencimiento de que todo lo que se ha dicho y hecho es verdadero, que se cree profundamente, a prueba de todo. Es mucho más que la conclusión de la mayoría de nuestras oraciones, es la asimilación misma de nuestro compromiso a vivir conforme a lo que hemos celebrado u orado. Por eso que nuestro amén tiene que ser verdadero, no sólo al concluir la Plegaria Eucarística sino al comulgar el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo. Al hacerlo, decimos "sí" a lo que verdaderamente somos: el cuerpo místico de Cristo. Nos hacemos uno con él en comunión y formamos un solo cuerpo en comunión con Dios. ¡Amén!
